To,

Sub: Appointment as an Independent Director of Alliance Integrated Metaliks Limited;

Dear Sir/ Ma'am,

We thank you for your confirmation to Alliance Integrated Metaliks Limited that you meet the "independence" criteria as envisaged in Section 149(6) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("2013 Act") and Regulation 16(1)(b) of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and also for your consenting to hold the office as an Independent Director of the Company.

Pursuant to your confirmation, we are pleased to confirm that upon the recommendations of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee ("NRC") and Board of Directors (the "Board"), the Shareholders of the Company in the Annual General Meeting of the Company (the "AGM") held on _____ have approved your appointment as an Independent Director on the Board of the Company on and with effect from _____.

This letter sets out the terms of your appointment as an Independent Director. Your relationship with the Company will be that of an office-holder and not one of contract for employment in the Company.

The terms of your appointment, as set out in this letter and are subject to the extant provisions of the applicable laws, including but not limited to;

- a) Companies Act, 2013,
- b) erstwhile Companies Act, 1956 to the extent applicable, if any,
- c) SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (as amended from time to time)
- d) Articles of Association of the Company, and
- e) such other acts as may be applicable.

1. Appointment

Your appointment will be for an initial term of five years commencing from _____ up to _____, unless terminated earlier or extended, as per the provisions of this letter or applicable laws ("Term").

As an Independent Director you will not be liable to retire by rotation.

Re-appointment for another term of maximum period of five years at the end of the current term shall be based on the recommendation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and subject to the approval of the Board and the shareholders by way of Special Resolution. Your re-appointment would be considered by the Board based on the outcome of the performance evaluation process and you continuing to meet the independence criteria.

The Board may reconstitute the composition of any/all Committees, from time to time, and any such change shall be promptly communicated to you. In such an event you may also be required to serve on other Committees of the Board.

2. Role, duties and responsibilities

A. As member of the Board you along with the other Directors will be collectively responsible for meeting the objectives of the Board which include:

- Requirements under the Companies Act, 2013,
- Requirements as applicable under the SEBI regulations,
- Responsibilities of the Board as outlined under Regulation 4(2)(f) of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015,
- Accountability under the Directors' Responsibility Statement,
- Overseeing the maintenance of high standards of values and ethical conduct of business,
- Overseeing the Company's contribution to enhancing the quality of life of Communities.

B. You shall abide by the Code of Conduct - Applicable to all Directors & Senior Management of the Company.

C. You shall also abide by the "Code for Independent Directors" as outlined in Schedule IV to section 149(8) of the Companies Act, 2013 and duties of Directors as provided in the Companies Act, 2013 (including Section 166) and in SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

For your ready reference, the relevant provisions have been extracted and attached to this letter at Annexure -I

3. Time Commitment

Considering the nature of the role of a director, it is difficult for the Company to lay down specific parameters on time commitment. You agree to devote such time as is prudent and necessary for the proper performance of your role, duties and responsibilities as an Independent Director.

4. Remuneration

As an Independent Director you may be paid sitting fees for attending the meetings of the Board and the Committees of which you are a member as fixed by the Board from time to time.

In addition to the sitting fees, profit related commission may also be payable to you. In determining the amount of this commission, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee may consider various factors as disclosed in the Remuneration Policy forming part of the Board's report. An indicative list of the factors that may be considered are as follows:

- Attendance at Board meetings,
- Attendance at Board Committee meetings,
- Chairmanship of the Board,
- Chairmanship of Board Committees,
- Contribution at Board and Committee meetings,
- Guidance and support provided to Senior Management of the Company outside of Board meetings,
- Industry practices,
- Performance evaluation, and
- Performance of the Company.

Further, the Company may pay or reimburse to you such fair and reasonable expenditure, as may have been incurred by you while performing your role as an Independent Director of the Company. This could include reimbursement of expenditure incurred by you for attending Board/ Committee meetings, Annual General Meetings, Extraordinary General Meetings, court convened meetings, meetings with shareholders/ creditors/ management, site visits, induction and training (organized by the Company for Directors) and in obtaining, subject to prior consultation with the Board, professional advice from independent advisors in the furtherance of your duties as an Independent Director.

5. Induction and Development

The Company shall, if required, conduct formal induction program for its Independent Directors, in accordance with the familiarization programme for Independent Directors, which may include any or all of the following:

- Board roles and responsibilities, whilst seeking to build working relationship among the Board members,
- Company's vision, strategic direction, core values, ethics and corporate governance practices,
- Familiarization with financial matters, management team and business operations,
- Meetings with stakeholders, visits to business locations and meetings with senior and middle management.

The Company shall, as may be required, support Directors to continually update their skills and knowledge and improve their familiarity with the company and its business. The Company will fund/arrange for training on all matters which are common to the whole Board.

6. Performance Appraisal / Evaluation Process

As a member of the Board, your performance as well as the performance of the entire Board and its Committees shall be evaluated annually. Evaluation of each Director shall be done by all the other Directors. The criteria for evaluation shall be determined by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and disclosed in the Company's Annual Report. However, the actual evaluation process shall remain confidential and shall be a constructive mechanism to improve the effectiveness of the Board / Committee. An indicative list of factors that may be evaluated as part of this exercise is:

- Commitment (including guidance provided to senior management outside of Board/ Committee meetings),
- Effective deployment of knowledge and expertise,
- Effective management of relationship with stakeholders,
- Integrity and maintenance of confidentiality,
- Independence of behavior and judgment, and
- Impact and influence.

7. Disclosures, other directorships and business interests

During the Term, you agree to promptly notify the Company of any change in your directorships, committeeships and provide such other disclosures and information as may be required under the applicable laws. You also agree that upon becoming aware of any potential conflict of interest with your position as Independent Director of the Company, you shall promptly disclose the same to the Chairman and the Company Secretary. You also confirm that as on date of this letter, you have no such conflict of interest issues with your existing directorships.

During your term, you agree to promptly provide a declaration under Section 149(7) of the Companies Act 2013, every year and upon any change in circumstances within 20 days which may affect your status as an Independent Director.

Further, you also confirm that as on date of this letter, you are not debarred from holding the office of Director by virtue of any SEBI order or any other such authority.

In future, if, by virtue of any SEBI order or any other such authority, if you are debarred from holding the office of Director, you will promptly disclose the same to the Company and shall voluntarily resign with immediate effect, failing which the Company may initiate the process of removal in terms of relevant sections of the Companies Act, 2013.

8.Changes of personal details

During the term, you shall promptly intimate the Company Secretary and the Registrar of Companies in the prescribed manner, of any change in address or other contact and personal details provided to the Company.

9. Termination

Your directorship on the Board of the Company shall terminate or cease in accordance with law. Apart from the grounds of termination as specified in the Act, your directorship may be terminated for violation of any provision of the Code of Conduct as applicable to Non-Executive Directors.

You may resign from the directorship of the Company by giving a notice in writing to the Company stating the reasons for resignation and also to Registrar of Companies (RoC). The resignation shall take effect from the date on which the notice is received by the Company or the date, if any, specified by you in the notice, whichever is later.

If at any stage during the Term, there is a change that may affect your status as an Independent Director as envisaged in Section 149(6) of the Act or, if applicable, you fail to meet the criteria for “independence” under the provisions of Regulation 16(1)(b) of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, or if you are debarred from holding the office of Director, by virtue of any SEBI order or any other such authority, you agree to promptly submit your resignation to the Company with effect from the date of such change.

10.Co-operation

In the event of any claim or litigation against the Company, based upon any alleged conduct, act or omission on your part during your Term, you agree to render all reasonable assistance and co-operation to the Company and provide such information and documents as are necessary and reasonably requested by the Company or its counsel.

11.Miscellaneous

- This letter represents the entire understanding, and constitutes the whole agreement, in relation to your appointment and supersedes any previous agreement between yourself and the Company with respect thereto and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, excludes any warranty, condition or other undertaking implied at law or by custom.
- No waiver or modification of this letter shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by you and the Company.
- As per the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, this letter along with your detailed profile shall be disclosed on the website of the Company and the stock exchange(s) BSE Limited (“BSE”).

12. Acceptance of Appointment

We are confident that the Board and the Company will benefit immensely from your rich experience and we are eager to have you as an integral part of the growth of our Company. If these terms of appointment are acceptable to you, please confirm your acceptance by signing and returning the enclosed copy of this letter.

We thank you for your continued support and commitment to the Company.

Yours Sincerely,

For Alliance Integrated Metaliks Limited

SCHEDULE IV read with Section 149(8) of the Companies Act 2013

CODE FOR INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

The Code is a guide to professional conduct for Independent Directors. Adherence to these standards by Independent Directors and fulfillment of their responsibilities in a professional and faithful manner will promote confidence of the investment community, particularly minority shareholders, regulators and companies in the institution of Independent Directors.

I. Guidelines of professional conduct:

An Independent Director shall:

- 1) uphold ethical standards of integrity and probity;
- 2) act objectively and constructively while exercising his duties;
- 3) exercise his responsibilities in a bona fide manner and in the interest of the company;
- 4) devote sufficient time and attention to his professional obligations for informed and balanced decision making;
- 5) not allow any extraneous considerations that will vitiate his exercise of objective independent judgment in the paramount interest of the company as a whole, while concurring in or dissenting from the collective judgment of the Board in its decision making;
- 6) not abuse his position to the detriment of the company or its shareholders or for the purpose of gaining direct or indirect personal advantage or advantage for any associated person;
- 7) refrain from any action that would lead to loss of his independence;
- 8) where circumstances arise which make an independent director lose his independence, the independent director must immediately inform the Board accordingly;
- 9) assist the company in implementing the best corporate governance practices.

II. Role and functions:

The Independent Directors shall:

- 1) help in bringing an independent judgment to bear on the Board's deliberations especially on issues of strategy, performance, risk management, resources, key appointments and standards of conduct;
- 2) bring an objective view in the evaluation of the performance of board and management;
- 3) scrutinize the performance of management in meeting agreed goals and objectives and monitor the reporting of performance;
- 4) satisfy themselves on the integrity of financial information and that financial controls and the systems of risk management are robust and defensible;
- 5) safeguard the interests of all stakeholders, particularly the minority shareholders;
- 6) balance the conflicting interest of the stakeholders;
- 7) determine appropriate levels of remuneration of executive directors, key managerial personnel and senior management and have a prime role in appointing and where necessary recommend removal of executive directors, key managerial personnel and senior management;
- 8) moderate and arbitrate in the interest of the company as a whole, in situations of conflict between management and shareholder's interest.

III. Duties:

The Independent Directors shall—

- 1) undertake appropriate induction and regularly update and refresh their skills, knowledge and familiarity with the company;
- 2) seek appropriate clarification or amplification of information and, where necessary, take and follow appropriate professional advice and opinion of outside experts at the expense of the company;
- 3) strive to attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the Board committees of which he is a member;
- 4) participate constructively and actively in the committees of the Board in which they are chairpersons or members;
- 5) strive to attend the general meetings of the company;
- 6) where they have concerns about the running of the company or a proposed action, ensure that these are addressed by the Board and, to the extent that they are not resolved, insist that their concerns are recorded in the minutes of the Board meeting;
- 7) keep themselves well informed about the company and the external environment in which it operates;
- 8) not to unfairly obstruct the functioning of an otherwise proper Board or committee of the Board;
- 9) pay sufficient attention and ensure that adequate deliberations are held before approving related party transactions and assure themselves that the same are in the interest of the company;
- 10) ascertain and ensure that the company has an adequate and functional vigil mechanism and to ensure that the interests of a person who uses such mechanism are not prejudicially affected on account of such use;
- 11) report concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the company's code of conduct or ethics policy;
- 12) act within their authority, assist in protecting the legitimate interests of the company, shareholders and its employees;
- 13) not disclose confidential information, including commercial secrets, technologies, advertising and sales promotion plans, unpublished price sensitive information, unless such disclosure is expressly approved by the Board or required by law.

IV. Manner of appointment:

- (1) Appointment process of independent directors shall be independent of the company management; while selecting independent directors the Board shall ensure that there is appropriate balance of skills, experience and knowledge in the Board so as to enable the Board to discharge its functions and duties effectively.
- (2) The appointment of independent director(s) of the company shall be approved at the meeting of the shareholders.
- (3) The explanatory statement attached to the notice of the meeting for approving the appointment of independent director shall include a statement that in the opinion of the Board, the independent director proposed to be appointed fulfils the conditions specified in the Act and the rules made thereunder and that the proposed director is independent of the management.
- (4) The appointment of independent directors shall be formalised through a letter of appointment, which shall set out :
 - a. the term of appointment;
